In the hymn “Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing”, have you ever wondered what the phrase in that song “Here I raise mine Ebenezer...” means? It means “Stone of Help”. Moses laid big stones to mark all the places the Lord helped them so when they passed the stone and their children asked what it was for, they would tell the children of the stories of how the Lord helped them. It was their Ebenezer. Do you remember the times the Lord has helped you and will continue to help you? Start an Ebenezer remembrance pile of stones to remember how God helped you. Then, you too, can raise your Ebenezer. I Samuel 7:12
