Romans 12:2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

For the Christian, the renewing of memories does not come from finding lost objects during spring cleaning time, but from rediscovering lost truths. Perhaps you read a passage of Scripture that had a certain relevance to you in the past. Maybe you read a passage in your journal or diary and recall how God blessed you or saw you through a very difficult trial. Maybe the truth of worship is renewed by finding a favorite CD of praise music that takes you back to a time when more of your heart belonged to God than it does today.

The best place to start renewing your mind is in the Word of God. Use this spring season of renewal and cleansing as a time to open your mind afresh to God.
